The activities correspond to the vocabulary of Asi Se Dice Level 1 Chapter 2, but can be used with ANY unit about houses. There are 6 worksheets with a wide variety of activities, such as filling in the blank, answering questions with vocabulary terms, answering questions about yourself, unscrambling words, sequencing words/phrases, describing images, categorizing words, making associations and more. Each page can be used separately Page 250 Questions that focus on basic vocabulary notions (welcomes/goodbyes, numbers, dates, weather, weather, basic school actions/supplies, cognates, etc.) The questions were written based on the Asi Se Dice Level 1 Preliminary. It also works well with the Buen Viaje series. There are 2 versions included. The first (pgs 3-6) includes some basic classroom vocabulary that I teach at the beginning (actions such as reading, writing, listening, studying, etc. and school supplies), as well as some cognitive patterns (-parent, -i). Page 3 Make learning Spanish vocabulary fun with these self-checkable, digital task cards! These digital and paperless task cards are perfect for distance learning, paperless classrooms or learning on the go! Use on iPad, Chromebook, laptop, computer, phone or interactive whiteboard. This set helps children to learn or practice the Spanish word of As As DICE 1 Capon 3. La Clase y Despuan © S. Sá e o mem for teaching Mother Teaching to Mother Teaching - Who wants to practice the Spanish Word Package 4. Each game consists of 6 categories (5 questions each) related to a specific theme. They were designed for classes using the text asve dice II, but could be used to other classes that cover the same shades. Themes include: Avião/Airport, DIARY ROUTINE, Train, Restaurant, Fan, Technology, Hotel, City and Field, Cars and Direction, PREPARATION OF KITCHEN AND FOOD, EXERCISES and accidents. The gym, working out, different activities and exercise, body parts, as well as accidents, lesions and going to the hospital. There are 6 spreadsheets with a wide variety of activities, such as filling in blank, answering questions with vocabulary terms, answering questions about themselves, the 6A of great talk and a way to practice circumlocution! My children always have fun with this game and often ask to play. This versions focuses on cars related to cars (parts, problems), highway (signals, speed, input/shutdown) and direction (rotate, parking, etc.). Like the popular taboo, students play in teams and try to make the other members of their team guess the word at the top of the card. The trick is that they are not being permissible to use none of the other words listed in what we love your help. Let me know what is wrong with this prize of Asi data! No 2, Work Folder and Conrad J. Schmitt's activities. Conrad Schmitt (Rumson, NJ) is the former editor of Foreign Wool, ESL and Bilhangué Publication for McGraw-Hill. McGraw-Hill.
